

Facilitating the Acquisition and Recognition of Key Competences

Friday, 31st October 2014
Venue: Ellinogermaniki Agogi Premises

AGENDA

Morning Session: Key note speakers
10:00	Welcome speech Mrs Katerina Riviou, Research and Development Department, Ellinogermaniki Agogi
10:10	The National Policy for Competence based teaching & learning General Secretary of the Greek Ministry of Education (tbc)
10:40	Teacher Competences fostering Inclusive Learning Prof. Georgios Kouroupetroglou, Department of Informatics and Telecommunications, University of Athens (tbc)
11:00	eLearning Services provided by Panhellenic School Network/Greek National Support Service (sch.gr) Dr Michael Paraskevas, ComputerTechnology Institute & Press – Diophantus (CTI)
11:20	National initiatives to foster competency-based teaching and learning (Greece, Austria, Spain, Netherlands, Ireland, France) Panel discussion, presentations by TRANSIt partners
12:00	Coffee Break
12:15	Helping schools overcome 'stuckness' by nurturing the development of emotional and organizational capacities Eleni Chelioti, Research and Development Department, Ellinogermaniki Agogi
12:30	Motivation of teachers implementing projects John Tzortzakis, School Advisor in Secondary Education
12:40	Open Badges - Facilitating the Acquisition and Recognition of Key Competences Serge Ravet, ADPIOS
13:00	Presentations of innovative school practices /projects by teachers
13:30	Participating with my school in the Open Discovery Space: Possibilities and opportunities for teachers' professional development Dr Sofoklis Sotiriou, Head of Research and Development Department, Ellinogermaniki Agogi
14:00	Lunch
<hr/>
15:00-17:00	Evening Session: Parallel Training Workshops
	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Designing and Evaluating Educational Activities fostering Competences• Inquiry-Based Learning to foster students' transversal key competences and digital badges• Open Badges workshop• Fostering the acquisition of key competences with project-based & inquiry based learning activities (learning in a museum, responsible research & innovation)• Project based learning/ cross-curricular projects in all grades (according with National Curriculum guidelines)
